Two-car crash

ONE OF THREE VICTIMS of a collision at Illinois 3 and Niedringhaus Avenue Monday morning, Michael Cox, 19, of Godfrey is lifted out of his 1978 Datsun by Granite City emergency personnel. Witnesses said Cox, northbound on Illinois 3, failed to stop at a red light and collided with a westbound car driven by Joseph Fain, 44, of 1738 Chestnut St., who was making a left turn onto 3. Fain, his wife, Anne, and Cox were all taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for treatment. Cox was ticketed with a traffic control violation.

Identification can thwart holiday burglars

By Valerie Evenden
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — A recent rise in burglaries in the community and the rapidly approaching holiday season, when thieves are more active than usual, call for extra precautions to protect property.

"One measure Police Chief Bill Harris suggests is that citizens participate in Operation Identification, through which valuable items can be inscribed."

"YOU CAN TAKE THE PROFIT OUT OF BURGLARIES by greatly increasing the risk criminals must take if they steal your property," Harris said.

"Our department will lend you an etching tool for the purpose of etching your driver's license or Social Security number on each valuable piece of property in your household," the police chief said.

"Using and promptly returning the etching tool on the same day it is borrowed is the only request the Granite City Police Department makes when loaning out the etcher," Harris said. The department has three or four such tools, he said.

BORROW An etching tool or gel-like identification agents may call Patrolman Curt Walkenbach at 876-9027 weekdays between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

The chief says he has good reason to advise residents to be more cautious. Burglaries are on the rise.

There were 19 more burglaries in October 1986 than in October 1985. And 31 burglaries were recorded in the city last month, the chief said.

DAYTIME and nighttime, your home is the prime target of burglars and the average haul is worth $250, says McGruff, America's No. 1 crime-fighting dog.

It doesn't take much — or cost much — to outsmart burglars. They are usually not "pros." Often they are people taking advantage of an easy mark, it was explained.

The holidays are a special time of the year, but they're also a time when busy people become careless and individuals are especially vulnerable to shafted and other crimes.

RESIDENTS are advised to be extra cautious about locking doors and windows when leaving the house, even for a few minutes.

Just this week, a Granite City woman was away from her house less than an hour came home to find the back door open and property missing.

About 50 percent of all burglars get in through unlocked doors and windows, it was noted.

CHECK DOORS To make sure they are the "dead-bolt" type with a strong metal bar extending one inch into the door frame.

A simple security safeguard for sliding glass doors when they are closed and locked is to put a small metal bar extending one inch into the door frame.

Kindergarten hot under collar and foot, too

By Dave Gosnell
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — The heat is on at Frohardt grade school — too high for some.

"The floor is almost too hot to put your hand on," said Earl Drennan, a parent of a kindergartener attending Frohardt.

Drennan said his child, who is in one of the three kindergarten classrooms at the school, often must wear clothes to school that would be more appropriate for summer temperatures.

"HE DRESSES LIKE he would in Florida," Drennan said.

Drennan said windows and doors to the classroom are often left open to make the room more comfortable.

"You can go by there any day. The back door is open. The heat is flying out the window," he said.

Frohardt Principal Don Kopp said the room 110, has often had heating problems. He said the overheating was discovered again this year.

"WHEN WE FIRST started the heating season, we got up to 80 degrees (in the room)," Kopp said. He said maintenance employees have since turned off the blown-in heat and are now relying on floor

Barton pleads guilty

EDWARDSVILLE — James W. Barton, former Madison County supervisor of assessments, pleaded guilty Friday to five criminal charges related to assessment reduction kickbacks.

The Granite City man was to have gone on trial Monday morning before Associate Judge Charles V. Romani Jr. The trial was expected to last two days.

In return for Barton's guilty plea, Special Prosecutor Bruce D. Locher agreed to dismiss 32 other charges and to make no recommendations in regard to sentencing. No sentencing date was set.

BARTON PLEADED guilty to one count of conspiracy to commit bribery and four counts of official misconduct, charges brought against him in 1984.

Official misconduct is a Class 3 felony, punishable by a sentence of up to three years. Conspiracy to commit bribery is a Class 4 felony, punishable by a sentence of up to two to three years in prison.

Barton, 64, remains free on bond.

Locher said that, except for sentencing, the plea mark an end to Barton's woes.

He said Barton agreed to dismiss his appeal of convictions on two charges of bribery earlier this year. Those charges were brought in 1982.

LOCHER SAID the state agreed not to call Barton as a witness in the case. The state and Barton had agreed to bring no additional charges against him related to the subject matter of the 1984 indictments.

Barton pleaded guilty to a charge that he conspired with others in 1983 and 1984 to improperly reduce real estate assessments.

This was done in exchange for heating elements to heat the room.

The measures reduced the temperature in the room to 80 degrees, which Kopp still considers too hot for the children.

"They get drowsy," he said.

The original radiators were designed with floor heat because children that age spend much of their time on the floor.

But malfunctioning control valves under the floor have plagued Room 110 with overheating problems in recent years.

"WE HAVE HAD a problem with that," maintenance crews have worked on that (valve) constantly.

"Last year, we thought we had it whipped," Kopp said. He said a worker had been sent to repair the floor heating problem.

District 9's director of buildings and grounds, Ron Landman, said he was unaware of the problem in the room this year, but he said the control valve to the room has been a concern.

"We've had a problem there before," Landman said. He said a valve repaired there last year "may have gone astray" again.

LANDMAN SAID he would "most

Special meeting on sewer repairs

How to finance a $10.5 million sewer rehabilitation project in the Nameoki area was expected to be discussed at a special meeting of the Granite City Council Tuesday night. No final decision on how to fund the repairs was expected, but suggestions include raising money through the general fund, sewer charges, general obligation bonds or government grants.

Where does Santa go?

In the Dec. 24 issue of the Press-Record/Journal, an important question will be answered. A Prather grade school second grade class will reveal where Santa Claus spends his time after Christmas. Each student in the class will be asked, "Where does Santa go after Christmas?" Their answers and a student drawing of Santa will be featured in the Christmas Eve issue.

Holiday baskets to be given

Salvation Army Christmas baskets will be given out Dec. 22 and 23 at the Salvation Army Center, 3007 E. 23rd St., Granite City. The baskets are given out to needy families in conjunction with the Tree of Lights campaign. Volunteers for the fund campaign will be ringing bells for donations at many area locations.

Joel Frey learned it does not pay to ignore barricades when he did not find a detour around the Venice traffic viaduct to his liking. Frey decided to go around the detour and head down Broadway. The next thing he knew, his car was mired in mud and was hanging on the brink of a big ditch.

Tell it like it is

Q: Do you think the law should be changed to require that the director of the Metro East Sanitary District be a professional engineer?

Benny Robertson

"No. The problem (with MESD) isn't not knowing what to do. It's in not having the funds to do it with. The people who are complaining — they are the ones not paying their sewer bills."

—Granite City

John Petish Sr.

"Yes, the law should be changed to require the MESD director be an experienced professional engineer assisted by an electrician. Pump stations operate on high voltage, which make them dangerous."

—Granite City

NEXT WEEK: Would you support a bond issue to repair Granite City sewer lines?

To record your answer, phone 452-0222 between 5:30 p.m. and 8 a.m. daily. Leave your name, hometown and phone number for verification purposes.

Quote of the week

"It doesn't mean we're all going to go to hell because we have liquor in a grocery store," said Granite City Alderman Sharon Perjek, who favors granting the new Schnucks supermarket a liquor license. The council has not yet granted the store a license, although a competing supermarket has one.

Tip of the hat

Kokichi Hagiwara

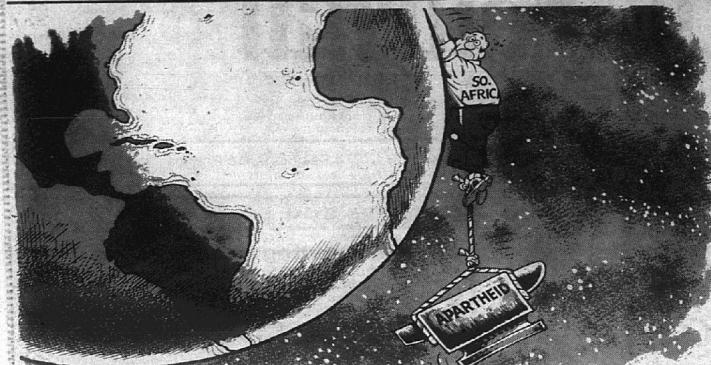

National Steel Corp. president Kokichi Hagiwara is recognized this week for providing industrial leadership in Granite City. Under Hagiwara's direction, National's Granite City Steel facility is investing in the future of the plant and the community by building a $16 million ladle metallurgy station, which was dedicated last week. Such investments in Granite City's future are welcome.

Few take middle road in 55 debate

To the editor:

People may be confused on what our policies should be on "Star Wars," on Central America, on tax reform, or nuclear energy. But on one issue everyone seems to have a strong opinion: whether the speed limit should be changed from 55 miles per hour to 65 mph.

The highway bill did not pass this year, and one reason was disagreement between the House and Senate on the speed limit.

The Senate had a provision changing the speed limit on Interstate highways to 65 mph; the House did not.

Sen. Alan Dixon and I both voted to keep the speed limit at 55 mph. Why did we vote that way?

Congress asked the National Academy of Sciences to study this question, and in 1984 they reported to us that the 55 mph limit saved us 1,000 lives a year, 3,500 severe injuries, and 50,000 less-severe injuries. Those are powerful statistics.

Like many others, when I drive an Interstate highway I frequently find myself slightly exceeding the speed limit, and when I am not exceeding it I'd like to be.

But it is also true that when the Illinois speed limit laws were 70 mph on the Interstate and 65 mph on other highways, I found myself exceeding the speed limit.

No matter what the speed limit is, we tend to drive just a little faster than the limit.

But, you argue, doesn't it make sense to keep the speed limit on Interstate and not on other highways? There are two arguments against that.

First, the evidence from the National Academy of Sciences' study is that the Interstate highways do become more dangerous at higher speeds.

Second, the 65 speed limit on Interstate with a 55 speed limit on others sounds good in theory, but the reality is that — when you're driving 65 and a little higher on the Interstate, you don't slow down that much when you get on the non-Interstate roads.

But, you argue, if slowing to 55 saves lives, then slowing to 45 or 35 would save even more lives.

That is marginally true, but what the public would accept and what makes common sense come into play also.

And when you increase the speed limit by roughly one-sixth from 55 to 65, you increase the hazard by 65 percent more than with 45 mph. Speed at higher and higher levels increases deaths and injuries significantly.

So I will continue to vote for a 55 speed limit even though I'd like to be driving faster.

But, you argue, doesn't it make sense to keep the speed limit on Interstate and not on other highways? There are two arguments against that.

Court rules on sex and supervisors

To the editor:

"Give me chastity and continence," St. Augustine prayed in the 5th Century, "but not just now." Few realize that the sexual experiences are more complex than relationships between the sexes, or less susceptible to rational analysis.

Whether the expert is St. Augustine or Sigmund Freud, St. Paul or Dr. Ruth, the result is always the same — hopeless confusion.

If people like that can't figure it out, how is some poor corporate executive supposed to do better? Most business people spend their waking hours contemplating market shares and productivity, not gender relations.

But the specter of sexual harassment lawsuits is forcing business to confront this most delicate of subjects. We live in an age when traditional sex roles are changing and more women are entering the workforce. It is inevitable that sparks will fly, and that some people will be burned.

Without question, sexual harassment is anathema to employers. It is illegal, and for good reason. People have a right to work without being harassed by unwelcome advances or coerced into situations they do not want.

Also, such activities invariably disrupt morale and productivity. How is an employer supposed to distinguish welcome and those that are not, or relationships that are consensual and those that are not? And when a situation is clearly hostile, how can an employer determine which party is at fault?

The sexual harassment issue is certainly not new, but it was brought to national attention by the Supreme Court's decision last June in Meritor Savings Bank v. Vinson.

A lower court had ruled that the employer was responsible for sexual harassment in the workplace, whether or not the employer knew or reasonably should have known about it. The lower court ruled also that provocative dress and behavior by the complaining party was inadmissible evidence.

The Supreme Court refused to impose strict liability on employers; and the behavior of a harassed employee is clearly relevant.

It did make clear that sexual harassment is a violation of law, and that employers bear an affirmative responsibility to prevent it.

In that case, the court suggested it would consider whether an employer has a policy against sexual harassment, whether there is a viable complaint procedure for people who believe they are harassed, and whether the complaining party used proper procedure.

Thus, it is clear that all employers must take aggressive steps to prevent sexual harassment from occurring in the workplace, and must set up a mechanism to enable employees who believe they are being harassed to seek remedial action.

But be careful! One company that tried to deter a liaison between two employees lost a suit for invasion of privacy. RICHARD LESHER President, U.S. Chamber of Commerce

GOING OVER THE TOP: Students of the National Honor Society of Granite City High School volunteered as United Way solicitors at several local businesses, collecting $1,300 for the Tri-Cities Area United Way campaign, which topped its goal. Madison school tax levy higher

By Donna Kimbro

MADISON — A 1986 school tax levy of $623,750, an increase of $167,311, was approved by the Board of Education Dec. 4.

In compliance with the Illinois Truth in Taxation Act, a public hearing was held on the new levy prior to the regular meeting.

RETIRING Superintendent of Schools John Palcheff reported the levy increase is 35.8 percent.

However, some of the levy may not be extended due to rate limitations.

Since the next real estate assessment total will not be known until 1987 for that summer's tax collection, allowance was made to utilize the full rate in the event the assessment base increases.

Due to the uncertain conditions, including an unpredictable assessment, it is impossible to properly predict the final levy and the new rate will be set in the spring.

IT'S NECESSARY to protect the school district's tax structure as it applies to the operating tax rate and as it relates to figuring state aid."

The new tax levy lists education at $375,000; operations, $140,000; transportation, $30,000; Illinois municipal retirement fund, $52,500; fire prevention, safety, environmental and energy conservation, $12,500; liability insurance, $20,000; and bonds and interest, $50,000.

Food drive by Pontoon Lions

The Pontoon Beach Lions Club, serving Granite City, Mitchell and Pontoon Beach, is announcing the annual "Give a Can" day for Saturday, Dec. 13. The club is seeking donations of non-perishable food items to make up Christmas food baskets for the less fortunate.

The Lions, Lioness and Leo clubs of Pontoon Beach will all participate in a door-to-door collection of donations on "Give a Can" day.

"If anyone knows of a family that should be included in our Christmas food basket program, contact the Pontoon Beach Lions Club, 300 Lake Drive, Pontoon Beach, Ill. 62040 or call Lou Whitsell, Give a Can chairman, at 797-6681 or Bill Luchini, co-chairman, at 797-0253."

BAC, steel company have partnership

The former General Steel plant in Granite City has seen better days, but is active at the brick building that once housed the plant cafeteria. There one can find plenty of life—and learning—in the Granite City Training Center.

John Smoot began taking one apprenticeship course per semester at the training center. Each completed course also built up credits with Belleville Area College.

The partnership between BAC and the Granite City Steel division of National Steel Co. is one of few enterprises to be unique nationally. GC Steel a few years ago acquired the closed General Steel plant and has leased areas of it for a variety of enterprises.

Classes at the training center, one designed for General apprenticeship and training programs, have now grown to a major offering in industrial-related and other credit courses open to the public.

Smoot, 42, who works as an industrial electrical supervisor at Granite City Steel, now has two associate degrees.

"After four or five years, I realized I was getting close to earning an associate degree. Then I got serious, taking one apprenticeship course and one general studies course per semester," said Smoot.

In 1985, he received associate of applied science degrees—in industrial electronics and as an industrial control specialist.

"Classes were very beneficial. This training was allowing me to take on more responsibility at my job," said Smoot.

Eight four-credit-hour courses comprise the curriculum for an apprenticeship program, said Richard A. Green, a training coordinator for Granite City Steel. An associate degree requires 64 credit hours.

Smoot took his general studies courses at BAC's Granite City Campus, 4950 Maryville Road.

"Not only were those classes beneficial to my job, they were beneficial to myself," Smoot said.

The courses were demanding and teachers were extremely qualified. Being an older student, I thought I would feel out of place, but I didn't."

In 1979, GC Steel converted the va-cent cafeteria building into the training center, which now offers 30 day and evening classes.

An unused warehouse behind the old cafeteria was converted into laboratory space.

All training center instructors are trained professionals, with many years of experience in their fields.

"There are two benefits—that at Granite City taking classes may earn college credit, and BAC can take advantage of industrial programs in an industrial setting," said Frank Pugh, manager of employment and training for Granite City Steel.

There are about 250 students now enrolled in college credit classes at the training center. Students at the training center work 30 to 32.25 credit hours from BAC last year.

Through the Granite City Steel program, BAC offers associate degrees for a number of occupational groups, including machinists, welders, tinsmiths, pipefitters, blacksmiths and millwrights.

Smoke detectors free in Pontoon

The Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department has smoke detectors it will distribute free to residents of Pontoon Beach and Nameoki Township, Fire Chief Danny Kreher said.

Families must have proof of residency in the fire district. They may pick up the detectors at the fire department on Wednesdays from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m., the chief said.

Stoves for home economics room at Madison High

By Donna Kimbro

Staff writer
MADISON — Board of Education members decided Dec. 4 to purchase three new stoves for the home economics department at Madison High School.

Pace Hardware of Madison was the lowest bidder and met the specifications. Total cost will be $883 for two 36-inch electric stoves and one 36-inch gas stove.

In other business, the board:

Agreed to have a new truck bed installed on a vehicle used by school maintenance employees. Cost will be $1,600.

Approved the football and track coaches attending a conference Jan. 16-18.

Accepted a letter from Mrs. Cynthia Kolakowski noting she will be able to return to work by Jan. 5. A substitute teacher will be hired while she is on sick leave.

Granted permission to Dr. Anita Eftimoff to take students of the Early Childhood At-Risk classes on a trip to downtown St. Louis to visit Santa Claus. The morning class will go on Dec. 16 and the afternoon class on Dec. 18.

The children will be taken to St. Louis and returned to their homes by bus. There will be one adult for each four students.

Allowed students of the junior class at Madison High to sponsor a candy sale to raise funds for the junior-senior school prom, under the direction of Luvernia Long and William Chatman, sponsors.

Burns' sentence Jan. 8 on DWI, cocaine charges

Sentencing has been set for Jan. 8 for former Madison County Board member Charles R. Burns on charges of driving while impaired and cocaine possession.

Burns, 33, was arrested in March in Monroe County, Mich. He was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol, possession of cocaine and carrying a concealed weapon, a .38-caliber automatic pistol, allegedly found in his glove compartment.

The weapon charge was dismissed in time when a judge ruled the search of Burns' car was illegal.

Last week, Burns pleaded guilty to the cocaine charge and driving while impaired to reduce charges.

Legal proof of intoxication in Michigan is 10 percent on a breath test. Burns registered .10 percent, sheriff's department reports said.

A charge of driving while impaired can be made if readings of 0.08 percent, the Monroe County prosecutor's office said.

The cocaine charge can carry a prison term of up to four years. The traffic charge carries a penalty of up to 90 days in jail and a $500 fine.

A spokesperson for the prosecutor's office said Burns might request probation for Burns, which could lead to a clean record if no intent violations occur.

Burns, of rural Edwardsville, was elected to the County Board in 1982. He lost in March Democratic primary this year.

An Edwardsville attorney, Burns has challenged the constitutionality of the Illinois drunken driving law.

Car skids, hits tree; two hurt

Calvin J. Barton, 19, of rural Granite City, was driving north on Braden Avenue when he was forced to swerve his auto to avoid a southbound van and hit an area of ice, causing his car to slide sideways across the road at 9:30 p.m.

At the time, Barton's vehicle ran over a stop sign and struck a tree at the northwest corner of Oakland Avenue and Braden.

Carl E. Tesreau, 14, also of rural Granite City, a passenger in Barton's car, sustained an injury and was taken by his parents to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for treatment.

Barton also suffered an injury but declined immediate treatment. An ambulance and rescue truck went to the scene.

BURGLARS TAKE $1,000 STEREO, TV WORTH $900

Richard Shane, 1715 Edison Ave., reported Dec. 3 that a rented stereo with two speakers, valued at a total of $1,006, and a handmade bedsheet, worth $100 and two pillows worth $10 were taken in a burglary at his apartment.

At the same time Ronald Miller, who resides at the same address, reported his apartment was burglarized and a rental 25-inch color TV set worth $900 was taken.

Judges to get more data before deciding upon bail

Planning is under way in Madison County to implement a program designed to provide judges with better information when they consider bail for persons accused of felony crimes.

Philip J. Rarick, chief judge of the Trial Judicial Circuit, said all judicial circuits in Illinois must establish such a program under requirements of legislation enacted earlier this year by the General Assembly.

Rarick is pleased with the legislation which he said should be helpful in making more informed decisions with regard to bail.

Such programs have been implemented in other states and some Illinois counties and are considered successful, he said.

The site will provide funding for hiring of officers who will investigate a suspect's criminal record, employment and other background information prior to consideration bond by a judge. At the judge's direction, the officers will then set bail, which is increased on bail while they await trial.

Currently, judges are often called upon to consider bail with very little information about a suspect, said Rarick.

Prosecutors and police officers sometimes are able to provide some information about a suspect, but lack the time and manpower for comprehensive background checks.

The additional information should help ensure that bail is set at a level consistent with the risk involved in releasing a suspect, Rarick said.

One of the most appealing aspects of the legislation is that "the county will be able to implement one circuit," Rarick told the County Board's Buildings Committee. He said the state will fund the program entirely, except that the county must provide office space.

Rarick and the Buildings Committee are to meet to discuss the site in the county jail for the office. Locating it there would minimize difficulty in interviewing suspects, he said.

Rarick said he expects the program to be in operation by July and said it will be run by the county's probation and court services department and probably will include two or three officers and a secretary.

DEER IN AUTO ALLEGED, THREE OCCUPANTS CHARGED

Craig R. Thomas, 21, of 2512 Madison Ave., was charged with illegal transportation of alcohol after his car was stopped by police on 1st and Madison Avenue and 23rd Street and beer allegedly was found in the vehicle.

Passenger Darrin S. Armour, 20, of 2219 E. 24th St., and Mark A. Martin, 19, of 2025 Madison Ave., also charged with illegal possession of alcohol.

Armour also was served a warrant alleging failure to appear on a charge of criminal damage to property. He was released after posting $150 cash bail. Thomas was released after the score on his driving license and Mathis was freed on a notice to appear for a hearing.

RECKLESS DRIVING AND OTHER CRIMES FILED

Noticing two vehicles passing and overtaking one another while northbound on Madison Avenue from the 2200 block, a police officer called for assistance and stopped the auto at 27th and Iowa streets at 8:35 p.m. Dec. 8.

Albert E. Downs, 18, of 2806 Marshall Ave., one of the drivers, was charged with reckless driving.

After allegedly finding beer in the second vehicle, police charged Ernest G. Gehrke, 18, of 2801 Lake Drive, Pontiac Beach, with reckless driving, illegal transportation of alcohol and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Dawn R. Dunnavant, 18, of 3908 Gaslight Walk, Marion Beach, Gehrke's car was charged with illegal possession of alcohol and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Three juveniles in Gehrke's auto, all 15 years old, were charged with being present in possession of alcohol. PURSE ROBBERY ATTEMPT IN COLLEGE CAMPUS RESTROOM

A woman about 30 years old grabbed the arm of Pam Ronkey of Granite City in a restroom Dec. 3 at the Granite City Campus of Belleville West College. Ronkey swung her around against a sink, kicked her in the right leg and took her purse, Ronkey said.

After grabbing the purse back, Ronkey slapped the would-be thief in the face. The woman ran from the restroom, down a hallway and outside the building.

The woman wore a short hairstyle and eyeglasses. She was 5 feet, 5 inches tall, weighed 130 pounds and was dressed in a red blouse and blue jeans, with short black boots.

Madison schools renew pact for truant officer

MADISON — A contract with Coordinated Youth Services to provide a truant officer for the school district from Nov. 1, 1986, to Oct. 31, 1987, was approved by the Board of Education Dec. 4.

Board members voted no and Dan Givett and James Newsome were not present. The Madison school district pays $2,500 a year for the truancy service.

Ed Warchol asked Dan Kostenski, superintendent of schools, if the district really benefits from the service.

Kostenski said it depends on the staff and the number of cases it must process. "Last year, we were pleased with the service they gave the district," Kostenski said.

Bob Hamm, maintenance supervisor, said he is sure the door is all right and he plans a fire drill soon to test it.

Superintendent John Palchek said it would take only one minute to clear the building of occupants in the event of a fire, and he thinks the door is adequate.

DRIVING JEANS ARE TAKEN

Six pairs of women's blue jeans valued at $122 were stolen from a clothes dryer in the Town and Country Apartments in Marion Beach area, it was reported Dec. 3 by Cathy Palmer, a tenant there.

SUSPECT IS CAUGHT BY STORE SECURITY GUARD

A National Food Store security guard was detaining Jean M. Wilson, 24, of 820 Jefferson Ave., Madison, when police arrived at the store Dec. 3.

The guard alleged he had placed meat items in a large purse and, when stopped outside the store, ran toward a car and was caught. Wilson, a clothing store owner and several large packages of meat were recovered, authorities said.

Wilson was charged with retail theft and was released after posting $102 cash bail.

Six charges filed against woman, 27

An incident in the Jack in the Box parking area, 3330 Nameoki Road, ended with the arrest of Kristie L. Mathis, 27, of 4125 Kassing Lane, Pontoon Beach, who was booked on six charges at 1:30 a.m. Dec. 4.

Deborah Reeves of Granite City alleged Mathis tried to hit her with a liquor bottle and also tried to hit a friend of Reeves, Cheryl McHrea of Granite City.

Reeves said Mathis struck Reeves' 1984 auto with the bottle, damaging a side mirror and a chrome door strip.

Witnesses said a vehicle operated by Mathis had backed against and damaged a wooden fence at the rear of the restaurant.

money given him or donated to a fund set up to help defray his expenses in defending himself against the 1982 charges, it was indicated.

ALLEGATIONS in the official indictment point to which Barton pleaded guilty are:

• That Barton and Gerald Bassett reduced the 1983 assessment on a residence owned by William T. Roberts in Godfrey.

• That Barton accepted money from "Dave" Croft in exchange for reduction of the 1983 assessment of Croft's Collinsville car dealership.

• That Barton accepted a $200 payment for his defense fund for reduction of 1983 assessment on property in which lawyer Robert "Pat" Quim had an interest.

• That Barton and Gerald Bassett reduced the 1983 assessment on property of Wegman Electric Co. in Wood River, Godfrey.

Barton was indicted in 1984 along with Gerald Bassett, a former assistant attorney, Merle Bassett, a lawyer and Gerald Bassett's father, Fred Fink, a former member of the county's assessment Board of Review. Quim and Beverly Delaney, who was Quim's secretary.

certainly" investigate the problem. He said a maintenance crew would be sent to Frohardt this week and would replace the valve if necessary.

Landman said the district often discovers problems with heating systems when the heating system begins. He said his first priority is to "make sure we've got heat" in district's 12 school buildings.

Landman said it is more difficult to add a new system to balance throughout schools with steam heating systems, such as Frohardt, as opposed to systems at other schools that use hot water.

LANDMAN AGREED that the practice of opening windows with the heat is unwise, he said. Frohardt's utility bills do not indicate the school was costing the school more than other districts schools of comparable size.

A comparison of Frohardt's bills with schools of similar size and systems did not show Frohardt was costing more. The comparison did indicate that schools with steam heating systems do cost more to heat than those with hot water systems.

Hortense Jackson succumbs at age 48

Mrs. Hortense G. Jackson, 48, of 1001 East 10th Street, died a Madison County resident died Thursday, Dec. 4, 1986, at St. Mary's Hospital in East St. Louis.

She was born in the Lovejoy area and lived in East St. Louis for 30 years.

Survivors include two sisters, Dorothy Murdock and Carmelita Gower, and two brothers, Elijah Crutcher and Robert Crutcher, all of Peoria; and two uncles, Matthew Ross, East St. Louis, and Robert G. Ross, Madison.

The Rev. LeRoy Henry officiated at noon services Monday at Nash Funeral Home, East St. Louis, with burial at Sunset Garden of Memory Cemetery, Millstadt, Ill.

Rites held Tuesday for Anna Papin, 79

The Rev. Robert Heintz celebrated a 10 a.m. Mass Tuesday at Sacred Heart Catholic Church for Mrs. Anna Gertrude (Caffrey) Papin, 79, of Granite City.

She died at 5:30 p.m. Friday, Dec. 5, 1986, at her home.

Burial was at Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville.

The Rev. Herman Boone, Ill. November 1986, and Charles Boone, in 1985.

Visitation was from 4 to 9 p.m. Tuesday at Irwin Chapel for Funerals, 2801 Madison Ave. Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. today (Wednesday) at First Baptist Church, 21st Street and Delmar Avenue, with burial following at Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville.

The Rev. Herman Boone, Ill. November 1986, and Charles Boone, in 1985.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m. Tuesday at Herr Funeral Home, 201 Main St., Collinsville, with burial at Holy Cross Lutheran Cemetery, Collinsville. Memorials are suggested for the Kidney Foundation.

about how clumsy he had been to fall like that, Ray said.

But when the teams rushed to his aid, they found him unconscious and gasping for air. Ray said he and teammate Rich Harper used cardiopulmonary resuscitation until an ambulance crew arrived.

Ambulance personnel tried unsuccessfully to revive him, Ray said. Vallino was pronounced dead at 11:20 p.m. at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

He was married to the former Mary Stephens and worked as a mail carrier in Edwardsville. He was a member of Mother of Perpetual Help Church in Maryville and National Association of Letter Carriers Branch 155 in Edwardsville.

Vallino's parents are Frank and Margaret Vallino of Maryville. The elder Vallino is village postmaster and also Maryville's village clerk.

brown handles or a rigid wooden door handle to the door track.

Even if the lock is jammed, the door will be hard to open if the track is jammed.

Residents should not hide keys in mailboxes, planters or other doorways, because they will all be best hiding places, officials stress.

DON'T DISPLAY gifts where they can be seen from a window or doorway. And, if away in the evening, automatic timers to turn lights and radio on and off in different rooms at different times so the house appears to be occupied.

Making the house look occupied and alerting a watchful neighbor that you will be away are two of the best deterrents to thwart burglars, law enforcement authorities said.

SS number important

Your Social Security number is probably the most important number you will ever have. Use other numbers, a telephone number or ZIP code, the Social Security number you are assigned should never change no matter how many jobs you have.

Even if you change your name or marry, you can keep a new Social Security number with your new name but the number will be the same.

People often ask what makes this number so important. The answer is: It assures that your earnings are accurately recorded so that future Social Security benefits for you and your family will be figured correctly. Since the Social Security program began 51 years ago, over 305 million Social Security numbers have been issued.

While many people think that a Social Security number is required until a person is old enough to work, there are several instances when a Social Security number is needed earlier. For example, a child needs a Social Security number to open a savings account or purchase a savings bond.

Although Social Security records are confidential, the developing computer revolution has prompted widespread adoption of the Social Security number for record-keeping purposes.

Mandatory disclosure of a Social Security number is limited and any federal, state or local governmental agency that asks for your Social Security number is required to tell what uses will be made of it and

Social Security

Commissioner of Social Security

under what authority the number is being requested.

Some non-government agencies and organizations may also ask for your Social Security number, which use is neither required nor prohibited by Federal Law. However, not providing the number can lead to refusal of certain services.

Knowing your number does not enable these organizations to obtain information from your Social Security account.

Because of the recently enacted Tax Reform Act of 1986 that requires taxpayers filing tax returns after Dec. 31, 1987, to include the Social Security number of each dependent aged 5 and over, many people have asked what they need to do.

Applications for a Social Security number can be made at any one of Social Security's 1,385 full-time or 2,650 part-time offices. Parents applying for a Social Security card should provide evidence of their identity in addition to evidence of the child's age, identity and citizenship or lawful alien status.

State to award research grants for Alzheimer's

The Illinois Department of Public Health is preparing to award the more than $14,000 contributed through the 1985 state income-tax checkoff fund for research into Alzheimer's Disease.

Grants will be awarded in two categories: general research and early research for those who plan to pursue careers specializing in Alzheimer's disease and related disorders.

Those eligible to apply for a general research grant are Illinois licensed physicians, Illinois hospitals or laboratories, postsecondary higher education institutions, and other health-care professionals, such as nurses and physical therapists.

Eligible applicants for the early research grants include individuals trained or in their last year of training for careers in fields related to Alzheimer's.

The early research grants are being made available to individuals who have recently completed training or nearly finished training, in the hope it will encourage them not only to engage in research but also continue their careers in this important field," said Dr. Bernard J. Turnock, director of public health.

Early research grants are limited to $30,000 each, while general research grants may not exceed $20,000.

Qualified persons interested in applying can obtain copies of the research proposal and application information from the Illinois Department of Public Health, Division of Chronic Disease, Alzheimer's Disease Program, 535 W. Jefferson St., Springfield, Ill. 62761. The telephone number is 727-4400. Application must be submitted by Dec. 31.

Senior Citizens choose officers

The Senior Citizens Club of Anchorage met Wednesday afternoon in the recreation hall, opened by reciting the pledge of allegiance and the Pledge of Allegiance.

President Vera Lynn conducted the business meeting. Sunshine Chairwoman Woodie Lynn reported cards sent to the sick and shut-ins. Evelyn Gansmann was welcomed as a new member.

The nominating committee selected the following officers for the coming year: Vera Lynn, president; Lucille Mann, vice president; Woodie Lynn, sunshine chairman; Joyce Moran, secretary; Paul Lynn, treasurer and Lillie Graf, reporter.

Guests for the meeting were George and Margaret Justin, and Ray and Donna Gagy.

Birthday honorees for December were Joyce Moran, Filomena Gruber and Beulah Gage. A special birthday wish was extended to Mrs. Ma Knapp, who was 96 years young. Mrs. Gage received the birthday cake.

All enjoyed Christmas carols sung by the students of Lake School. The program ended with a sing-along for everyone and refreshments were served.

Granite City Jaycees aid needy

The Granite City Jaycees delivered 50 food baskets to area families prior to the Thanksgiving holiday and are now finalizing plans to aid needy children for the Christmas season, President Jon Soles said.

Co-chairmen Sherry Storey and Diane San Souci are in charge of fund-raising projects to provide for the yuletide gifts.

They have planned a bowling sweepstakes at all local bowling lanes and are accepting donations of good used toys at J.C. Penney. Area residents who wish to donate toys and need a pickup service may call 877-8669 or the toys may be delivered to the hall during the week from noon to midnight, the chairmen said.

Another event will be a rock concert featuring the band, "The Jokers," with all the proceeds to be used for a Christmas shopping spree for the children.

A date for the concert has not been set. The shopping date will be Dec. 21 at 10 p.m. at the steel hall. The Jaycees also planned another fund-raiser to send exceptional children from this area to Camp New Hope in Mattoon, Ill., this summer.

The Jaycees also provide delivery of government commodities to shut-ins, elderly, ill or handicapped. Anyone who cannot wait in line because of a physical condition, qualifies according to the federal government guidelines and will sign an affidavit, may call on the Jaycees to provide the commodities and deliver them to their homes.

For more information on this program, those eligible may call 876-8669 after Jan. 1, 1987.

New bond sale by state government

Illinois sold $120 million in general obligation bonds Dec. 2 at 6.225 percent, the lowest interest rate in more than seven years.

The bonds, rated AAA by Moody's Investors Service and AA plus by Standard and Poor's, were awarded through competitive sale to the First National Bank of Chicago at a true interest rate of 5.2254 percent.

"The bond sale demonstrates that the financial community continues to be confident in the state's ability to manage its finances, and in the steady growth of the Illinois economy," said Budget Director Robert Mandeville.

Two other bonds were 6.2656 percent. The First Quantum Trust Co. and 6.2617 percent by Citicorp Investment Bank.

It was Illinois' first general obligation bond sale under the new federal tax law, which has prevented other issuers from coming to market.

certified or original documents are acceptable. For a U.S.-born child, a U.S. birth certificate and a school, day-care, or hospital record can be used.

If the child is not a U.S. citizen, a foreign birth certificate and U.S. immigration document would be acceptable. Parents may use a driver's license, voter's registration card, passport, or other public documents to establish their identity.

Persons age 18 or over who have never been issued a Social Security number must apply in person at any Social Security office to obtain one.

Since most people 18 and over have already been issued a Social Security number, it will be reviewed to prevent Social Security from needlessly issuing a second number to the individual.

Travelers Abroad hear of trip through Sweden

Travelers Abroad met last week with 25 members and guests present. President Elma Hoover reminded the group to make reservations for the Christmas dinner party.

The nominating committee presented the following proposed officers for the coming year with the program vice president slot still vacant: president, Elma Hoover; secretary, Helen Krumsiek; treasurer, Geneva Lee McCombs; co-chairwoman, Dorothy Rude and Elma Hoover; and publicity chairman, Barbara Williams. The nominees will be voted on in January.

Program Chairman Georgia Engelhardt and Don and Mary Dona Shaffner, who spoke on their 1986 trip to Sweden.

Shaffner, active in Granite City Rotary and Rotary International, said that among the aims of the program are civic development and improvement and promoting international understanding and world peace through youth exchange programs.

In 1985, over 9,500 young people participated in this program throughout the world. He is the coordinator for the Rotary International Youth Exchange and was one of 12 Americans invited to attend the European Youth Exchange Conference in September in Uppsala, Sweden.

Nineteen countries were represented with a total of 114 persons. Their goal was to determine ways to make the Rotary youth exchange programs better.

Many of the conference participants were invited into private homes in Uppsala, and the Shaffners felt fortunate in being hosted by the Lutheran minister and his wife. His church is a famous Gothic cathedral.

They were treated to a 10:30 p.m. private tour of the cathedral with all lit especially for them. The twin spires of the cathedral are as tall as the length of a football field plus 30 yards.

The parsonage belonging to the cathedral was built in the year 1160.

Their host has 5,000 persons in the district that he directs.

The minister's wife owns and operates four boutiques.

Church attendance in Sweden is casual — only weddings, funerals and Christmas draw large attendance — and generally very few are regular church-goers, the gathering was told.

Uppsala, a city celebrating its 700th anniversary, was an early center of religion. The question was raised, "Why we forget after 700 years?" Answer was settled — meaning for freedom of religion and become casual in the future?"

The conference was conducted entirely in English, rather than including French as in the past. Many participants did not speak English, however.

One of Shaffner's photographic slides showed him receiving a flag of welcome from the host Rotary club.

After the conference, a short tour was planned for the invited participants and one of the sites visited was the 1,000-year-old city of Sigtuna, which was the capital of Sweden 900 years ago.

It was an important city before the Reformation and now is one of the high points for tourists.

Proceeding to Stockholm, the Shaffners visited the Blue Room, where all Nobel Prizes are presented.

Sweden has perhaps the highest standard of living in the world and is primarily dependent on Europe, rather than America or other nations.

The visitors walked through the Royal Palace and shopped in the NE Department store. This big store features a four-story-tall chandelier made from Orrsors crystal goblets, which are suspended upon a globe.

Next on the itinerary was the island of Skansen, which is noted for its open-air museum, featuring old farmsteads and centuries-old shops and trades.

The entire town of Forsmark, the site of Sweden's nuclear power generating plant, was bought when the nuclear project began.

The plant contains three large generators and, when their safety systems began to malfunction, last year, the plant was closed. The Chernobyl nuclear disaster in Russia, The Finns knew about the accident 24 hours before the Swedes found out, but it was the Swedes who made it known to the world, the speaker said.

Shaffner went through the plant

Trailways is allowed to drop all but one route

SPRINGFIELD — Trailways International, Inc., has given the go-ahead to the Illinois Commerce Commission (ICC) to drop all but one of its remaining passenger bus routes with stops in Illinois.

Among routes the carrier can abandon is one between Chicago and St. Louis that drops off a number of passengers in Mount Olive. A separate company, Deluxe Trailways, will continue to have one stop in each direction daily in Mount Olive on basically the same route.

The ICC still recommends no further study of dismantlement of the route because, in addition to the continuing Deluxe Trailways service, Greyhound still operates seven buses a day on the Chicago-St. Louis route.

Highland, St. Jacob and Troy are still stops on the Vandalia Bus route between Effingham and St. Louis.

A 1982 federal law, largely deregulating the passenger bus industry, has resulted in substantial cutbacks in services.

Even before then, Alton, Godfrey, Wood River, East Alton, Bethel, Hamel, Livingston, Meadowbrook and Granite City in Madison County, were dropped from bus routes.

Since then, Edwardsville, Carrolton, Roodhouse, White Hall, Beardstown, Virden, Staunton and Carlinville have also lost interstate bus service.

Robert Shaw holiday airs on Christmas Eve

America's choral master Robert Shaw, conducts the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra and its 200-voice chorus in a holiday music program at 9 p.m. Dec. 24 on Channel 9.

Robert Shaw's Christmas Festival will offer 20 pieces of hymns, carols and instrumental selections from around the world. Also performing are the Mormon College Glee Club and the Young Singers of Callanwolde.

Scheduled are excerpts from Handel's "Messiah," Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker," Bach's

Christmas Oratorio and a seven-carol service.

Shaw gained national prominence as the founder and director of the Robert Shaw Chorale and his interpretations of Christmas music have been treasured for over three decades.

Home health care

A RIBBON-CUTTING ceremony on Thursday marks the relocation of the Vaughn Home Health Care facility to the Bellemore Medical Building at 3165 Myrtle Ave. in Granite City. Cutting the ribbon is the administrative assistant to Mayor Von Dee Cruse, Donna Fanning. Vaughn employees, representatives of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce and the Granite City assessor's office were on hand for the ceremony. Vaughn offers health care to the homebound and other services.

Ask the dietitian

Dear Dietitian,

My husband was just diagnosed to have heart disease and his physician prescribed a low cholesterol and weight reduction diet to help prevent further problems.

It will be difficult to follow this diet especially during the holidays. What can I do to plan holiday menus and follow the prescribed diet? What can he do during cocktail parties and office and family get-togethers? How about snacks and desserts?

A. There is one reason why you cannot plan a holiday meal and follow the prescribed diet at the same time to enjoy the holidays. Use very lean meat, trim off the fat, and limit the amount to 3-ounce portions.

Turkey is a good choice since the skin is relatively low in saturated fats and calories. There are only 163 calories in a 3-ounce serving of white meat.

Not only is alcohol high in calories, but it can contribute to an increase in your blood and immediate risk when you mix your drink with driving. If you do want to enjoy a drink, limit the amount of alcohol and do not drive if you have been drinking.

Another good tip to avoid overindulging is to move away from the refreshment table.

As for desserts, stick to the skinless, low-fat choices. The skin is relatively low in saturated fats and calories. There are only 163 calories in a 3-ounce serving of white meat.

Another good tip to avoid overindulging is to move away from the refreshment table.

Enjoying the season's merry-making does not have to mean a break from healthy eating habits.

This year, start the holidays with a promise to yourself to enjoy a healthy and wise Christmas and a "new you" in New Year. ***

December plans by Parents club

December activities of Parents Without Partners Chapter 91 include a volleyball session on Dec. 10, playing trival pursuit on Dec. 11, visiting Union Station on Dec. 12, and a general meeting on Dec. 16 at the Chamber of Commerce in Collinsville.

One of the biggest downfalls in weight control programs during the holidays is cocktail parties.

Whether it is an office get-together, a neighborhood open house, or a family reunion, the refreshments tend to consist of high-calorie snacks and alcoholic beverages.

Instead of high-fat finger foods like cheeses or butter cookies, and highly-salted munchies like nuts and chips, treat yourself to fresh vegetables and fruits which are also good sources of fiber.

Clark regaining winning grip

When Jack Clark, first baseman for the St. Louis Cardinals, recuperated from his first visit to an occupational therapist, he thought it was just a ploy from a souvenir seeker. He obliged with one he had used in the 1985 World Series.

But when he arrived for therapy session for his injured thumb the next day, he received a big surprise: The bat had three heavy eyes drilled into it. Although still a Louisville Slugger, it was now an integral tool for his therapy.

While some baseball fans might consider such a sacrifice as silly, Clark's eyes had a still useful purpose. When attached by its eyes to cables and a computerized torque regulator, the bat turns into a means of a very controlled workout designed to get the hitter's grip back into form.

Recovering from a major injury to his right thumb early in the 1986 season, this powerful hitter now had a new tool to help him toward total recovery.

"This therapy program has probably helped me get my strength back twice as fast as I was getting myself," said Clark. "Taking this a step farther, this could help almost anyone recover at a faster rate. It is really bringing me back, confidence-wise, as far as getting back a normal range of motion. It's been the way to go for me."

Clark is a client of the Work Entry Program, a new service of Jewish Hospital at Washington University Medical Center, St. Louis. In the Work Entry Program, people who have injured themselves on the job are assigned occupational and physical therapists for their physical capabilities, and then trained to build their abilities to the point that they can return to work by doing what they do on the job. In Clark's case, it required that Jeff Cowdry, occupational therapist, provide him with a highly controlled batting practice.

"Anytime that return to work is an issue, therapists need to tailor-make programs to get injured workers back on the job. In Jack's case, the goal is to get him to baseball," said Cowdry, also a specialist in hand rehabilitation.

"What we did was take him through all of the traditional exercises in conjunction with Dr. Caplin's orders. The therapist would take him to the point where he was close to being able to go back to his trainers, we put him on the work-simulator to get him accustomed to the kind of work he's used to doing."

David Caplin, M.D., a St. Louis physician, examined Clark's thumb, repaired a torn ligament in Clark's thumb and supervised his rehabilitation in consultation with Stanley London, M.D., the Cardinal team physician. Both Caplin and London are attending physicians at Jewish Hospital.

Clark began work with Cowdry six weeks after his June 24 injury, a consequence of a dive into third base. After a recuperation period with casts and splints, Clark was left with a hand which did not have enough strength to turn his car's ignition key, much less hold a bat against a 90-mph fast ball.

"You just don't realize the importance of some of the little things, like using a doorknob, that you can't do with a thumb injury," Clark said.

But as those gadgets out there help you to do those types of things again."

Clark was referring to a set of grips and levers of various sizes and functions which hook up to the same work simulator that staged his bat. The intensity of his workout and his progress on each of the therapy tools is monitored by computer for control against working too hard and too quickly, and to record his activity. Not content to just work his injured right hand, Clark has also similarly worked for his left hand and his shoulders in the interests of overall conditioning.

His reconditioning program, while highly specialized, is an example of the possibilities available for people with less public blemishes than debilitating injuries, said Cowdry. At the Work Entry Program office, located in Olivette, there is an expansive room with the raw materials and tools to simulate virtually any job.

"Once we evaluate the physical capabilities of clients and conduct some overall conditioning, we will create their work environment here and put them on a schedule of gradually increasing their work load," he said.

"Whether we're working with a machinist with a shoulder problem or a file clerk with a back problem, we'll create an individual program which will help him or her get back on the job."

"When return to previous employment is impossible because of physical limitations, we help clients determine what their capabilities are and what type of job would be best for their future."

The program is based on the concept of "work as therapy," first advanced by occupational therapists in the 1940s and recently revived as an effective method of returning injured people to the workplace.

Employers have expressed interest in the concept as a means of returning injured workers to the job more quickly to maximize productivity and minimize the expenses of replacing injured employees.

In Clark's case, he's under doctor's orders not to do any real hitting until spring training to avoid the possibility of re-injuring himself. Meanwhile, Clark is looking forward to being back at the plate and to the day when he adds another home run to his stats.

"If I hit one, I'll definitely have to thank you this time," he said. Jeff has my job, and hopefully someone else will get the benefit of it—maybe someone with a sports injury."

Hospital hirings topic of Open Forum series

The November Open Forum Series, sponsored by the St. Louis Department of Rehabilitation, was held at Belleville Area College's Granite City Campus. The featured speakers were representatives of area hospitals, including St. Elizabeth Medical Center of Granite City, Alton Memorial, Oliver Anderson, Christian Northeast and St.

Louis Children's Hospital. Hospital training programs were explained and the panel members discussed their respective hospitals' structure, patient care, and employment opportunities.

Jo Bywater, employment manager for St. Elizabeth Medical Center, gave a brief history and reviewed the missions of the hospital.

The 469-bed hospital has approximately 1,170 employees, slightly less than the peak that was reached prior to 1984, when economic hard times hit most of the hospitals in this region, the gathering was told.

The next Open Forum will be Dec. 16 at Lewis and Clark Community College, Room 105, Alden Hall.

Food in Bethel Cookbook

A new 116-page cookbook, "Recipes and Recollections," published by Bethel United Methodist Church, at Pond, contains authentic favorite recipes and anecdotes contributed by descendants of some of West St. Louis County's pioneer families.

Added to these are some new, tried and original dishes developed by the current generation. It tells how to cook possum, bake cheese sandwiches for 60 and steam fluffy dumplings.

Not just another pot-luck collection of church ladies' pot-luck casseroles, "Recipes and Recollections" has favorites for everyone. Some of the recipes even are reputed to work well at attracting girls. The family, church and recipe histories are what make this volume fun to browse through.

Like St. Louis, the book is a blend of old and new, classic and jazzy. From Grandma's Christmases Eve Meat Pie to Microwave Caramel Corn and $200 Chocolate Chip Cookies.

Bound in a washable, hard plastic cover, the collection is available for $10 (plus $1.75 mailing) from the Cookbook Committee, Bethel Church, 17500 Old Manchester Rd., Glencoe, 60338. For further information, call Mary Billings, (314) 391-6341.

Here is a sample recipe, one for Butterscotch Refrigerator Cookies, donated by Lillie Corless, Bethel's oldest member, in memory of her late wife. She lives now in the Riverview Gardens area, but still participates actively in church work.

Fridge cookies

2 cups brown sugar
1 cup butter
2 eggs
4 cups flour
1 tsp. baking soda
1 tsp. cream of tartar
1 tsp. vanilla
1 cup chopped nuts

Cream together butter, brown sugar and eggs. Add sifted dry ingredients, baking soda and cream of tartar. Mix well. Add vanilla and nuts.

Shape into rolls. Store in refrigerator several hours or overnight.

Slice. Bake at 375° until brown, 6 to 8 minutes.

Glazed thighs

chicken thighs, skinned tbsp. oil
1/2 cup flour
1 cup apple jelly
2 tsp. lemon juice
1 tbsp. dried onion flakes garlic clove, minced
whole cloves
1/2 tsp. curry powder
1/4 tsp. pepper
Cherry tomatoes
Green onion tops
Parsley

In large frypan, heat oil to medium temperature.

In shallow bowl, place flour, add chicken, one piece at a time, to coat.

Place chicken in frypan. Cook, turning about 10 minutes or until brown on all sides. Remove excess oil from pan.

In same sauceman, mix together apple jelly, wine, lemon juice, onion flakes, garlic, cloves, curry powder, salt and pepper. Heat until jelly melts. Pour sauce over chicken. Cover and simmer, basting occasionally, about 15 minutes.

Remove cover. Simmer about 5 minutes more until fork can be inserted in chicken with ease and meat is tender.

Place chicken on serving platter. Garnish with cherry tomatoes, green onion tops and parsley. Makes 4 servings.

Cajun snapper

1 garlic clove, crushed
1/2 cup sliced fresh mushrooms
1 cup chopped onion
1 cup thinly sliced celery
2 tbsp. butter
1/2 tsp. dried basil
1/2 cup hot water
1/4 cup (15 oz. can) tomato sauce
1/2 cup toasted pecan halves cup sliced green olives
1 tsp. red thyme leaves
1/2 cup dried shrimp
1/2 cup crushed small shrimp
1/2 lb. red snapper fillets

Combine garlic, mushrooms, onion, celery and butter in 2-quart microwave-safe casserole dish. Microcrock on high 2 minutes. Stir. Microcrock on high additional 2 minutes.

Dissolve bouillon cube in hot water. Stir bouillon, tomato sauce, pecan halves, thyme and red pepper into vegetables. Cover loosely. Microcrock on high 5 minutes.

Stir in shrimp. Microcrock additional 3 minutes. Remove from oven. Keep warm.

Arrange fillets in 13-by-9 inch microwave-safe baking dish. Cover loosely. Microcrock on high to 10 minutes, rotating dish and rearranging fillets halfway through cooking time.

Serve fish and sauce with hot cooked rice.

Makes 4 servings.

Breakfast treats

Home-baked pastries warm from the oven offer an invitation to the breakfast table that will begin the day on the right foot.

Served with fresh fruit, a bowl of high fiber cereal and a glass of milk, Creamy Crescent Cheese Braids are a delicate sweet made easily with refrigerated rolls.

Old-fashioned in style, they are filled with new fangled flavor with cream cheese. The dough is braided into individual servings. The cooking time is minutes to bake and will brown as perfectly in a toaster oven as in a conventional oven.

Cheese braids

1 (3 oz.) pkg. cream cheese, softened
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/2 cup, grated lemon peel
1/2 cup, vanilla
1 egg, separated
1 (8 oz.) can refrigerated crescent rolls

Confectioner's sugar
Lightly grease small cookie sheet.

In small bowl, combine cream cheese, sugar, lemon peel, vanilla and egg yolk.

Separate dough into rectangles. Gently press perforations to seal. Spoon cream cheese mixture lengthwise down center third of each rectangle.

Make cuts 1/4 inch apart on each side of rectangles just to edge of filling. Fold strips of dough at angle across filling, alternating from side to side to give a braided appearance.

Place on prepared cookie sheet. Brush with beaten egg white. Bake at 375° for 12 to 16 minutes or until golden brown.

Cool. Sprinkle lightly with confectioner's sugar.
Store in refrigerator.
Makes 4 rolls.

Mincemeat bread

2 1/2 cups flour
3/4 cup sugar
2 1/2 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
2 eggs, beaten
3/4 cup milk
3/4 cup oil
1 cup prepared mincemeat
2 cups square bran cereal
3/4 cup chopped nuts
1 cup sifted confectioner's sugar
1 to 2 tsp. orange juice

Grease 9-by-5-inch loaf pan. Combine flour, sugar, baking powder and salt. Add eggs, milk and oil. Stir in mincemeat and cereal. Let stand 5 minutes.

Add all at once to dry ingredients. Stir just until moistened. Batter will be stiff.

Turn into pan. Bake at 350° for 60 to 70 minutes or until tester inserted in center comes out clean.

Let cool 15 minutes before removing from pan. Cool. Combine confectioner's sugar and orange juice. Drizzle over top of bread.

Makes 1 loaf.

Prairie pot roast

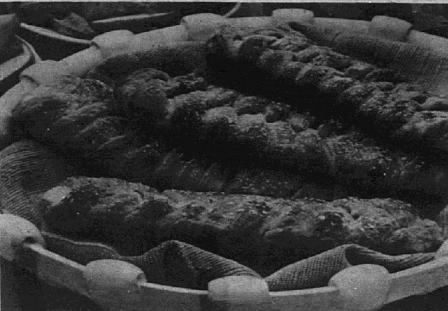

1 (3 to 4 lb.) pot roast
Salt and pepper
(1/8 cup) sweet French dressing
1/2 cup water
3 small onions
4 medium carrots, cut in 1 inch pieces
4 potatoes, peeled, quartered
1/2 cup water
1/4 cup flour

Season meat with salt and pepper. Brown in 1/4 cup dressing over low heat. Add remaining dressing and water. Cover. Simmer 2 hours.

Add onion, carrot and potatoes. Cover. Continue simmering 1 hour or until meat and vegetables are tender. Remove meat and vegetables to serving platter.

Gradually add water to flour, stirring until well blended. Gradually add flour mixture to hot liquid in pan. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture boils and thickens. Simmer about 5 minutes, stirring constantly.

Serve with meat and vegetables. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Salad sails to port with cranberries

Ruby red and mellow with port wine, Festive Cranberry Mold has a memorable flavor. Crushed pineapple and the zest of orange peel make it cool and refreshing. Apples add an intriguing bit of cardamom blend into the port and cranberries like they were made for this salad.

One of the major attractions of Festive Cranberry Mold is that it can be made ahead of time and unmolded at the last minute. It is simple to make, too. The sweet syrup of crushed pineapple is drawn through the gelatin dissolved in the syrup and port wine. This is chilled and thickened. A cook short on time can set the bowl or saucerman in ice water to hasten thickening. All that is left is to fold in chopped fruit.

As any host or hostess knows, it is a dish like this that makes entertaining a pleasure.

Festive mold

1 can (8 1/2 oz.) crushed pineapple
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
1 tbsp. sugar
1/2 cup port wine
1 can (8 oz.) whole berry cranberry sauce
1 medium red apple, cored, diced
1/2 cup chopped pecans or walnuts
1 tsp. ground orange peel
1/2 tsp. cardamom
Crisp salad greens

Drain pineapple well, reserving juice. In medium saucepan, combine gelatin and sugar. Stir in reserved syrup and port. Heat mixture until gelatin dissolves.

Chill until slightly thickened. Fold in pineapple, cranberry sauce, apple, nuts, orange peel and cardamom.

Pour into 1-quart mold. Refrigerate until set.

Unmold on serving plate lined with crisp salad greens. Makes 8 servings.

Banana cranberry bread

Make double batch of bread

The first bite of Banana Cranberry Bread tells that it is fresh and wholesome. The flavors are intense, the texture moist and sumptuous.

This quick bread is a creative blend of ripe bananas, freeze-dried cranberries and zests, orange peel. Chopped walnuts, a generous amount of cinnamon and a dash of ground cloves each adds a distinctive taste sensation. The result is a moist, cake-like bread to serve for brunch, afternoon snacks or dessert.

The perfect bananas for year-round quick breads have skin-speckled peels and are very soft. They can be puréed easily in a blender or mashed with a fork.

This is the harvest time for fresh cranberries, but it is not necessary to save them only at this time of the year. They can be saved by freezing. Just rinse them, pat them dry and freeze with a fork.

In airtight containers that can be opened to pour out the amount necessary.

This recipe makes two loaves to make baking worth the effort.

Top bread treat

3 very ripe, medium bananas, peeled
2 cups fresh cranberries
1/2 cup sugar
2 tbsp. grated orange peel
3 eggs
1 cup oil
5 cups flour
1 tbsp. baking soda
1/2 tsp. cinnamon
1/4 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp cloves
2 cups chopped walnuts

Puree bananas in blender to make 1 1/2 cups.

Chop cranberries. Combine with sugar and orange peel. Beat in bananas, eggs and oil.

Combine flour, baking soda, cinnamon, salt, cloves and nuts. Beat dry mixture into banana mixture until blended.

Turn into two greased 8-by-5 inch loaf pans. Bake in 350° oven 50 to 55 minutes until toothpick inserted in center comes clean.

Cool 10 minutes. Invert on wire rack to complete cooling. Makes 2 loaves.

Top food at Hunan

By Bill Hester
Correspondent

The first page of the Hunan Palace menu promises a never-to-be-forgotten dinner.

For the uninitiated, Hunan Mandarin offers a large selection of Mandarin specialties.

Cantonese, which also includes Soncha Roland is the owner of Hunan Palace. She grew up in the restaurant business in native Korea. She moved to the United States in 1968 and settled in St. Louis.

Roland work creates the right atmosphere, but as attractive as the place is, the people are just as cooperative as the employees are, the food is the real star of the Hunan Palace.

I went there for lunch recently and can remember the last time I had such an enjoyable lunch and for just $3.50. Diners enjoy hot tea and chow mein noodles while looking over the menu.

I decided to have Cashew Chicken. The meal starts with Wonton or Hot and Sour Soup. I selected Wonton Soup. It was delicious.

The entree came shortly thereafter and the plate was full. The Cashew Chicken came with a good helping of fried rice, an egg roll and Crab Rangoon. Every bite, and there were plenty of them, was a delight.

There are 20 lunch specials in addition to those available from the dinner menu which change weekly. The lunch specials, which range from $3.50 to $3.95, are available from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Roland said she also anticipated having a buffet for Monday luncheon by the beginning of the year.

"A lot of people called and asked if we had a buffet," Roland said. "I was surprised that so many with buffets found out there was such a thing only since I've been to America. They don't have buffets in China."

I eagerly await the buffet. Roland said it will include beef, chicken with buffalo, fried chicken, an American-item such as fried chicken. It will also include a salad and fruit bar and the typical Chinese condiments. Roland said the price will be moderate.

The Hunan Palace also is offering a weekend brunch from 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. About 40 items are offered at just 25 percent less than dinner prices.

"I make sure that the customer has plenty of food," Roland says. Dinner specials include a Hunan Palace dinner ($8.95 per person) and special per person ($7.95 per person). Each is served with soup, two appetizers, vegetable fried or steamed rice and a dessert.

The Hunan Palace dinner is for the spicier palate, while the family special is for those who like their food on the milder side. Chinese food has never been one of my favorites, but the Hunan Palace has become a favorite for me. I eat there, I think that says a lot about the restaurant. The Hunan Palace is open from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Friday and Saturday. For more information call 314-842-7870.

Granite Chapter honors officers

Granite Chapter 650, Order of the Eastern Star, held its Thanksgiving meeting on Nov. 28.

Worthy Matron Shirley Schwindemann and Worthy Patron Jack DeCourcey recognized all who have helped them during the past year, and presented gifts of small ceramic owls to past matrons and past patrons after they were introduced and seated to the East for special honors.

Betty McClintock, grand representative of Montana in Illinois, was introduced and escorted to the East, where she was a guest for the evening. She is the East as an honored guest of the worthy matron and worthy patron, Shirley DeCourcey, who was thanked for the help she has given during the term of office.

Gifts of appreciation were presented to Helen Schwindemann, Lois Hebbelwaite and Dorothy Walker.

Associate Matron Shirley Throne announced a calendar project meeting at her home on Dec. 9, with Conductress Jo Ann Clancy in charge. All members were invited to attend.

Garden features holiday sounds

The Missouri Botanical (Shaw's) Garden will present Sounds of Christmas, a holiday musical tribute, on Saturday, Dec. 20, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Ridgway Conservatory. The musical entertainment is by area instrumental and vocal groups and is free with regular Garden admission.

The schedule of performances that day is: Lacelde String Quartet, 11 a.m.; the noon Garden Festival Brass Quintet, 12:30 to 1:30 p.m.; St. Louis Children's Choir, 1:30 to 2:30 p.m.; and Thomas Moore, classical guitarist, 2:30 to 3:30 p.m.

The Sounds of Christmas complements the Garden's holiday flower show and tree exhibits at Orthwein Floral Hall, both exhibits are open to the public 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily at 4541 Shaw Blvd., St. Louis.

Gamma Epsilon educators meet

The Gamma Epsilon Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society International held its November meeting at Clark's in Collinsville. Delta Kappa Gamma is a society of key women educators.

The group was visited by Wilma Nutall, representing the state level of the organization. A brunch buffet was held with Jeanne Campbell, East Alton, serving as hostess. Those attending from the Granite City area were Wanda Mattea, Rosemary McConkey, June Mills and Sandra Persons.

Spanish Mass at St. Joseph

St. Joseph Parish, 2101 State St., will be celebrating the Feast Day, Our Lady of Guadalupe, with a Spanish Mass at 7 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 12.

Father Bill Fisherkeller will be the celebrant.

Coffee, cake, and fellowship will follow in Jordan Hall. Everyone is invited to attend and bring a friend. Due to the 7 p.m. Mass, there will not be a 7:30 a.m. Mass on that day only.

Holiday dinner at Reinhardt home

Relatives and guests attended a Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Rich and Margie Reinhardt, 2845 Iena St.

Present for the holiday event were Rich Reinhardt, son of the hosts, Robert, Banner, Cathy, Richard, Marti and Amy Bobb, Ricky, Pam and Eric Tansley, Dian, Mel, Michael, Matthew and Michael Campbell, Bill and Aleena Forsy, Kim and Doug Graen and Chris, David and Clinton Sipes.

Out-of-town guests included Mable Chouinard, Julie McDonald, Sarah, Julie and Beth Hewson, Will Parker, Mike Kirk and Adam and Ernie Gregory.

Sisterhood marks 57th anniversary

The Sisterhood of Dewey Avenue United Methodist Church celebrated the 57th anniversary of the organization with a special service.

The Rev. Vernon Brown offered the table prayer, followed by singing of the Sisterhood theme song.

A history of the group was reviewed by the members, followed by an antique display and discussion led by Evelyn Thompson, Hazel Pierse, Millie Sherman and Eleanor Hobson.

Lionesses plan children's party

Plans are under way for the Pontoon Beach Lions Club to host a Christmas party for about 25 children from the Catholic Children's Home in Alton.

The event will take place on Wednesday, Dec. 17, at the Lions Den in Pontoon Beach, Chairman Lynn Cavar said.

She added there will be gifts, refreshments and entertainment for the guests.

Zoo forms club for kids

The St. Louis Zoo has established a new membership organization for youngsters between the ages of 3 and 5. ZOO-MMM is designed specifically for children who enjoy the world of nature and the St. Louis Zoo.

The $10 annual membership — a potential gift for the holidays or any occasion — provides a personalized membership card, a club sticker, and six issues of a fact-and-fun-filled newsletter.

Activities will include contests with prizes, members will be invited to submit photos, essays and drawings. In addition, each member will be invited to a special event at the Zoo.

Every newsletter will include facts about favorite animals and their habitats, animal care, keeper's photos and stories about keepers, Veterinarians, and others doing behind-the-scenes work. Each issue will also contain backyard nature projects, puzzles, games and crafts. According to Karen Temporiti, St. Louis Zoo Friends volunteer chairperson of ZOO-MMM, membership is designed to heighten children's interest in the Zoo in several ways:

1. Strengthens fascination with exotic wildlife, natural history and conservation.

2. Specifically, reinforce their desire to visit the Zoo often by providing information on new arrivals, specific animal facts, seasonal changes and special events.

3. Foster an interest in the natural world in general.

Carrie Howell, director of the St. Louis Zoo, said, "One reason ZOO-MMM's time has come is the new Education and Discovery Center, scheduled for completion in 1988. ZOO-MMM will intensify the young members' anticipation of the exciting itinerary to come, such as interpretive displays, multi-media presentations, exhibits and special events."

Membership applications and checks may be sent to: ZOO-MMM, St. Louis Zoo Friends Association, Box 955988, St. Louis, Mo. 63177. The Zoo Friends office number is 314-647-3210.

Ruth Jensen gives program

Mrs. Ruth Jensen presented a slide program at a meeting of Drusilla Andrews Chapter of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The program, on eagles, was from the Audubon Society. Mrs. Jensen noted that the bald eagle, symbol of the United States, is only found in North America.

The term "bald" means white, referring to the bird's white head, she said. Pictures of the bald eagle can be found on the Seal of the United States.

The state of Illinois has four wildlife refuges where eagles may be found, she said.

The meeting was opened by Regent Sandra Wilkinson, with all members repeating the American Creed. Mrs. Barbara Williams read a Thanksgiving prayer.

The president general's message was read by Mrs. Georgia Engleke. Miss Joyce Taft, mistress for the meeting, presented a national defense report, "The Immigration Crisis is a Security Threat."

Mrs. Williams presented a tip on home safety and the regent reminded all of the donations for veterans at the Veterans Administration Hospital at Marion, Ill.

Mrs. Wilkinson will host the next meeting on Dec. 20. Also in attendance were Florence Simpson, Emma Vaneles, Emma Schoen and Marie Reinhardt.

Gala holiday show

The majestic beauty of St. Albans Abbey in Hertfordshire, England provides the backdrop for Galway's Christmas Carol, a holiday celebration to be telecast at 9 p.m. Dec. 22 on Channel 9.

The Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, the Ambrosian Singers and the Choristers of St. Albans Abbey join the internationally-famed flutist.

The program captures the season's festivities through a mix of traditional Christmas carols and new arrangements of holiday classics from around the world.

Galway has been principal flute in some of the world's greatest orchestras, including the Berlin Philharmonic.

James Galway Christmas Carol is produced by the BBC.

State to approve 150th nature preserve soon

The Illinois Nature Preserves Commission soon will approve the state's 150th nature preserve. The landmark action is expected to come at the commission's next meeting, Feb. 10, at the Illinois Natural History Survey's headquarters, on the campus of the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign.

Commission members set the stage for the natural area preservation milestone at a meeting at Principia College, Elsah, when they approved nature preserve status for three properties, bringing the number of preserves in the nature preserve will be one of the nine others given preliminary approval at the Principia meeting.

Illinois' nature preserve system was the first in the nation to be established with legislative authority for the properties. It is believed to be one of the largest such systems in the country.

Illinois also was the first state to create a nature preserves commission under state statute to oversee the preserve network, and to provide the protection of the land and water areas protected within the preserve network.

The first state nature preserve was dedicated in 1964 and the 100th in March 1983. In recent years, the commission has added about a dozen new annual.

Nature preserves are land and water areas dedicated by their owners for perpetual preservation and maintenance in a natural condition. They may include prairies, savannas, forests, caves, lakes, streams, wetlands, and hills, and they may be owned by private individuals, corporations, organizations or government units.

The three sites receiving final approval included: Burton Cave in Adam's County, a 9.6-acre addition to the Illinois Nature Preserve, site of a large heron rookery in Cook County; and Bluff Springs Fen, a 7.4-acre marshland, also in Cook County.

Sites given preliminary approval and expected to be considered for final action in February are:

Hanover Bluff, Jo Daviess County — a 361.7-acre tract containing several endangered plant and animal species, high quality sand hill prairie, dry dolomite prairie, dolomite cliffs and upland forest.

Ward's Grove, Jo Daviess County — a 12.5-acre tract containing upland forest, dolomite exposures, seep springs, ginseng and critical habitat for a number of bird species.

North Dunes at Illinois Beach State Park, Lake County — a high quality marsh, prairie, sedge meadow, sand savanna and prairie and contains habitat for 12 rare or threatened species.

The Matthiessen Tract, LaSalle County — a 79-acre part of Matthiessen State Park containing significant sandstone cliffs, upland forest and the threatened northern white cedar.

Carroll second

BOB CARROLL of Carroll's Import Repair, 198 Madison Ave., Madison, drove this Datsun 510 GT-4 to a second place finish in the Mid-America Regional Challenge (SCCA) road racing for 1986. He took second place in the bombing points race Nov. 9 in Hallet, Okla., while first place went to Gregory Block of Broken Arrow, Okla. The two finished the year tied in points, but Block got the title because he won the last race. The challenge series consists of races at St. Louis International Raceway and six other tracks in Oklahoma, Kansas and Colorado. The first race of the year was in March. Carroll, who predicted a first place finish for next year, thanks Greg Mifflin, Randy Baldwin and all the others who helped make it a successful year.

TCA Tigers announce plans for season

The TCA Tigers have started practice and are back in the Knights of Columbus Hall doing what they do best — playing basketball.

On Dec. 17 at 5:30 p.m. at SIUE, the team will be playing a preliminary game against the St. Joe Jammers of St. Louis. They have also been invited to Peoria for an invitational tournament Jan. 2-3. The Tigers won the tournament last year.

The team is asking for help for 16 people to make the trip to Peoria. About $600 is needed for rooms and food. For more information, call Kay Hahne at 457-2323.

The Tigers are also holding a bingo game at Colonial Haven Nursing Home the first Saturday of each month. They started the program in October and will be there the rest of the year.

To send an application to the Special Olympics, $3.00 will do the job. The Tri-Cities Association for the Retarded is looking forward to getting more people involved, and this is the most important way to do it.

Make checks payable to Tri-Cities Association for the Retarded or OATH, 6th and State, Madison, Ill., 62060.
